BRAWL ERUPTS IN YOUTH GANG GATECRASH BID

A gang of 20 youths from Williamstown and Newport ripped a door from its hinges and damaged council furniture in an attempt to gatecrash a pop dance at the Civic Hall last Friday night.

The youths and their girlfriends crowded into the foyer entrance to the Civic Hall at about 10 p.m. and refused to pay admission to the dance.

Three of the youths then attempted to enter the hall, saying they wanted to use the toilets.

They were told that they would not be admitted inside the hall unless they paid to get in and attendants asked them to leave.

Three attendants who attempted to usher the three youths out of the building were rushed by the rest of the youths.

A scuffle ensued as the three attendants and Altona youths who rushed to their aid battled to fend off the gate-crashers.

One of the attacking youths ripped an iron leg from a table and struck an attendant with it.

A wooden door was ripped from its hinges under the weight of the gate-crashers.

Police to rescue

What looked like developing into an ugly incident was brought under control when police from D24 arrived.

Fortunately no one was hurt in the brawl but the dance was closed half an hour early to prevent a recurrence.

Shortly before the gate-crashers arrived at the dance, Altona's rate collector, Mr. Tim McGarry, called the police when he saw a band of youths acting suspiciously outside Altona Youth Club.

"They were upending 44-gallon drums and when I questioned them, they abused me", said Mr. McGarry.

One Altona youth at the dance said he had heard two days earlier that the Williamstown boys were coming down to "bust up" the Altona dance and "do over" the locals.

The surf club dance featured new Melbourne pop group, Willie and the Philtones.

Before arriving at the scene of the dance the D24 police were called to quell a brawl in Queen Street on the same night.

Minister acts on sewerage

The Minister for Local Government, Mr. Hunt, has told Altona Council he will advise the Treasury that council requires financial aid to complete sewerage of Altona properties.

In a recent letter to council, Mr. Hunt said he had noted the comments which appeared in the Australian Municipal Journal and, like council, he was concerned that so many properties were not sewered.

He said: "A situation like this ultimately leads to the pollution of our streams and I am in touch with the Board of Works on this matter."

"Finance is the main problem and until the necessary loan funds can be made available, it is difficult to see relief."

Mr. Hunt added: "I am taking this matter up with Treasury and you can rest assured that I am fully aware of the problem and will do everything in my power to hasten the connection of sewerage to residential properties."

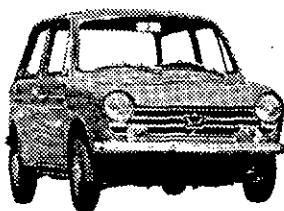

Mr. Hunt was replying to a recent letter from council.

On the recommendation of Altona's Board of Works Commissioner, Cr. Harry Weaver, council agreed to note the letter and raise the matter as an order of the day, in three months time.

Petroleum Refineries of Australia has conducted an informal campaign to stamp out litter bugs.

One section of the campaign was held in Altona and pretty 20-year-old Robin Ludbrook played an important role.

Robin (pictured) was one of four girls who handed out litter bags to employees of the company.

Frank Traynor's Jazz Band played on the tractor-driven litter wagon while the girls took care of distribution.

The Gospel... according to 'Mr. Industry'

By Sue Gavaghan

Youth today often puts the morality of parents to shame because it is more honest.

The opinion of the Rev. Alan Jones, 31, Victoria's only Chaplain to Young Adults.

Mr. Jones has held the position for two years. He is also resident priest at St. Luke's Anglican Church, Altona.

He and Rae Jones have two children, Peter 2 and Pauline, six months.

Mr. Jones is currently youth chaplain for the Repco Industrial Training Centre, Maidstone, Repco Training Centre, Carlton, the PMG Schools at South Melbourne and Torong, the SEC Apprentice Centre, Yarraville, The Victorian Railways Apprentice Training Centre, Newport and Chryslers, Port Melbourne.

His salary is paid on a 50-50 basis by the church and industry.

On call

Mr. Jones can be called by any part of industry in Victoria at any time, for his services to youth.

He entered the church in 1967, when he studied at Ridley College, Parkville for three years.

Afterwards he was curate at St. Mary's Caulfield for two years and curate at St. Mathew's Glenroy for 18 months before receiving the position as chaplain.

He says "I don't really know why I went into the church except that it is something I had to do."

Previously he had been a senior technician with the PMG.

And he quips "Same thing really, both deal with communication."

Concerns

Of young people Mr. Jones says that their major problems concern their relationships with parents and girl friends.

"But they are really tremendous. They question everything and are simply not prepared just to accept the doctrines of the church and of society," he says.

"The way in which social attitudes have changed is reflected in the attitudes of people, particularly the young to religion."

"I find that they mainly criticise the church's attitude toward birth control and marriage."

Mr. Jones was also youth chaplain with the St. John's Homes for Boys and Girls for 18 months until Christmas.

The homes now have a separate youth chaplain.

"With these children — was dealing with people who had been put on care and protection charges. They were the pre-delinquents with different sorts of problems."

He finds in his work that it takes a while to get to know the young people and that they are always trying to "trip me up."

Loaded

"Loaded questions, apparently accidental but completely deliberate."

"You learn to take them in your stride. Most common is 'Who made God?'"

"I usually say, 'If I knew then I would be God', I believe that, too."

"As chaplain I can keep my finger on the atmosphere of the place. I can sense any unrest that might be developing."

"It is worth industry's while to have me because with this communication if I stop one boy from leaving I have paid my way."

Starting

"Youth's greatest problem is when he starts work — he is just not prepared for it and what it entails."

"After the first year the idea that to work is to earn money is replaced by such things as pride and satisfaction in the job."

He wears the "dog collar" when he visits Chrysler because, "It helps bridge the gap, as I cannot really speak all 13 languages. When they see the collar they are able to connect me with religion."

Normally he wears a collar and tie.

He adds, "I really love my work. It gives me a great deal of satisfaction to move among the young and to help prepare them for tomorrow."

Printer for Guides

The Guide movement in Altona has again benefited from the backing of the Altona Petrochemical Company.

This time the company presented the Guide Committee with a "Fordigraph" duplicating machine.

PLANT A TREE AND LIVE

North America suffocating in the carbon-monoxide fumes of its multitudinous motor cars. Oxygen (supply) scarce and selling at premium prices. Before long this may be the first great catastrophe in what will be the universal ecological disaster.

According to many of the world's leading geographers and conservationists, such an event is becoming increasingly inevitable. These experts are of the opinion that at the moment only the vast forests of South America are keeping North America's "Joe" supplied with his daily oxygen needs.

And what about Poland? We have just learned the shocking news that every tree in the that country will die.

These countries are distant but the concern is ours. We must think of our planet as a spaceship with only a limited oxygen supply.

If this supply is destroyed it will mean the end for us. We will all drown in the foul air we have helped to create.

However, we can do something. This is why the recent emphasis on a "Green Victoria" is so important. Trees and more trees must be planted and more importantly, cared for.

In Altona we are fortunate to have great areas of open land.

While it is true that the City has embarked on an intensive tree planting scheme, this has not been enough. The average visitor to Altona is hit "smack in the eye" by industry. Great sterile walls of steel, towering chimneys, cyclone compounds and squalid stained rivers of asphalt, also abound.

Visitors to our municipality are certainly not given an impression of trees.

Let us use our open spaces before it is too late. Altona Sports Park, Cherry Lake, Kooringal golf links and the Truganina Reserve lend scope for the development of a beautiful green belt.

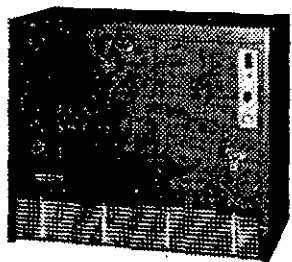

Native eucalypts, pines, poplars, elms, big trees that soar up to the blue can be planted. We must break away from the "rose-bush mentality" that has previously led us to believe that any living tree over three-feet tall must be brutally hacked down to size.

Naturally such a project would require the co-operation of the City Council and the citizens. The citizens' role would be vital. In the past too many residents have been apathetic towards tree care. Now it's time to change. How about planting a tree this week. The world is going to need its oxygen.

WEST MAKES EDUCATION ITS BIGGEST PRIORITY

An examination of views expressed by delegates to the May 7 "Deprived West" seminar reveal very clearly the strongest interest among people of the west was in the area of education, active seminar worker, Mr. Keith Kosky, said yesterday.

There was increasing indignation among western suburbs people that the west, once again, had been overlooked when consideration was given to the establishment of Melbourne's fourth university, he said.

An important part of the education campaign in the western suburbs would be to fight for a university and a teachers' college in the west.

Mr. Kosky said comparatively recent suggestions for sites for a western suburbs university had been Melton and Werribee. However, there were increasingly strong views that the fourth university for Melbourne should be in Sunshine.

He said proposals for a university in Sunshine had been made when consideration was being given for the establishment of the third Melbourne university, which, finally, was La Trobe — again, not in the west.

At that time, Sunshine put up a strong case for the university and it was now proposed that the submissions then made should be re-examined and brought up-to-date.

Mr. Kosky said: "Ad-

Push for university

Mr. Col Thorpe, chairman of the seminar action group for education, said yesterday there were major — and serious — education problems in the western suburbs.

A big problem was caused by the neglect of the Commonwealth Government in not providing proper facilities for migrant children from countries where English was not the national language.

Mr. Thorpe said it was asking too much to expect such children to properly learn in Australian schools until they had been taught to understand the language in which they were being taught.

The responsibility for providing the best tuition in English was that of the Commonwealth Government, which had induced migrants to come to Australia in the first place.

He said the incomplete knowledge of English by some migrant children presented the most serious problems for teachers, apart from difficulties for the children themselves.

There was an urgent need for special teaching aids for migrant children, such as language laboratories.

Mr. Thorpe said that far too many teachers in the western suburbs were unhappy about conditions in the west, resulting either in resignations or applications for transfers.

The answer was to pressure the Commonwealth Government for more money and also to make sure the western suburbs of Melbourne obtained a full and just share of money that was being allocated for education.

He said an urgent necessity in the west was a Teachers' College.

Land had been set aside for the college in North Sunshine, near St. Albans, but so far all that existed was barren land.

IS IT ALL IN THE MIND?

The Editor of the Star this week received the following letter:

Dear Sir,
Altona's Mayor, Cr. Lynch, may be right, there is no pollution in Altona, it's all in the mind.

We keep repeating the air is not filled with unwanted chemicals, our river is not pink, foaming or dead, those black spots on the washing couldn't be black soot, our beach is clean.

But it's no good, the mind won't clear. Send a psychiatrist immediately, 30,000 people need his help to be able to breathe properly and believe they live in Balwyn.

Yours faithfully,
R. F. HARRISON

POOR COWS

Four cows were hit by cars in Altona and destroyed last month, according to Altona's Ranger, Mr. Bob Heyen.

Reporting to council last week, Mr. Heyen said the cows had caused severe damage to the cars.

He said three of the accidents had occurred west of Kororoit Creek and one in Queen Street, opposite Board of Works land.

The fourth accident occurred when a cow was killed by a train on the Geelong line west of Maidstone Street.

All of the accidents took place after 10.30 p.m.

Continuing his report, Mr. Heyen said he had seized and impounded 29 dogs, including two Alsatians, during April.

Three of the dogs were later returned to their owners.

Two horses were also impounded and later returned to their owners.

Firemen fast on uptake

During recent months, APC conducted a fire fighting competition involving all male employees.

Forty-two teams were formed and they were required to extinguish fires using two hose lines fitted with fog nozzles.

The four fastest teams to extinguish the fire competed in the final and employees enjoyed the training with the added competitive spirit.

Outright winners of the competition are pictured, with pilsner goblet trophies they were awarded with the competition organisers.

MOTORING SECTION

CAR OF THE FUTURE

During the next few weeks I will be giving you a sneak preview of the exhibits which will appear at the International Auto Sports and Motor Cycle Show at the Exhibition Building, Melbourne, from June 9 to 18.

Pictured above is the taste of motoring into the 1980s. It has appeared only in Geneva, London and Montreal before coming to Australia.

It stands a mere 32-in. high, the sleek wedge-shaped Stratos is a fore-

UNIQUE ENTRY
The most startling feature of the Bertone Stratos is the method of entry to the futuristic passenger compartment.

There are no side doors at all and entry is made through the wind-screen.

The whole screen hinges upwards and is closed after entry by the driver, pulling the heavily padded steering wheel towards him until it locks into position.

To open he merely pushes the wheel away and presto! the screen opens again!

STARTLING
The startling design of the Stratos includes a headlight system which is a 2-in. high band of 10 high performance lights across the front, indicator lights which flash from the centre to the outside of the car, dashboard and controls set beside the driver instead of in front of him, and a fully reclining seating position for driver and passenger.

REAR ENGINE

The Stratos is powered by a V4 Lancia high performance motor mounted in the rear. Drive is via a 5-speed gear box and axle unit. The 1.6 litre motor develops 230 bhp and can push the aerodynamic car at speeds up to 140 mph. (230 kph).

The radiator is set across the rear of the body and is cooled by two thermostatically-controlled electric fans.

The car is due back in Europe in July to appear at major European motor shows.

This is the first time that a prototype car has been to Australia in the first year of its manufacture.

The curtain rises

By Thisbe

Amateur theatre groups are always careful when choosing a play to find a production which is not too expensive to stage.

A large number of glamorous costumes, lavish sets, expensive orchestras and costly rights can put certain plays outside the pockets of many groups.

These expenses are some of the reasons why Williamstown Little Theatre is sharing a production of The Lion in Winter with the Pumpkin Players.

Some of the costumes will be hired and others made. The cost will be shared.

The Little Theatre's small stage will be able to manage several changes of scene with the aid of a revolve, which will also be used at the Pumpkin Theatre in Richmond.

The revolve, plus an extension to the apron of the stage will increase the speed of the changes and overcome some of the special problems only found in historical plays.

The play season will be between Wednesday, July 5 and Saturday, July 15.

The curtain rises on The Lion in Winter at 8.15 p.m. sharp.

The play selection committee is holding another play reading at the theatre, 2-4 Albert Street on Thursday, June 8.

Elderlies say thank you

Former Altona Town Clerk, Mr. J. W. Waters, received a letter of praise from the Altona Elderly Citizens' Club shortly before he left the municipality yesterday.

Mr. Waters, who has taken up the position of Town Clerk of Moorabbin after 15 years with Altona Council, was described as a man who always showed deep interest and concern for the welfare of Altona citizens.

In a letter to Altona Council, president of the Elderly Citizens' Welfare Committee, Mr. Reg Watson said Mr. Waters' interest in elderly citizens had been a great comfort to the older members of the community.

Mr. Watson said the club was appreciative of the provision of the excellent buildings and facilities which his club enjoyed and the guidance that had been given to the club.

POP STAR — with Ron Coleman

I have it on good authority from Karen at Let It Be, that Daddy Cool will arrive in Melbourne on June 6 for a brief stay before returning to the U.S. The group will appear at Berties for four weeks and they will also appear at the new Werribee Sunday night dance on July 9.

Incidentally, Willie and the Philtones can be booked direct (their number's in Planet) or through Let It Be. They are reasonably priced and ideal for all occasions.

Yet another pop group has emerged on the local scene, featuring the one and only Willie Russell on drums. Let's hope they go well. Also on the local side of things, Phil Manning was very impressed with Terraplane's performance last Friday. Another name that is cropping up around the western suburbs is Mr. Muse.

Great little group, Willie and the Philtones. Phil Manning and Tony Buettel really have something going for them with their surprisingly commercial repertoire. The other two members of the group which appeared at Altona Civic Hall on Friday last, are both former members of Ida May Mack. The Philtones were willing to play through until the dance closed but due to troubled caused by "out of towners" the dance was closed at 11.00 p.m.

Tony Buettel came down from Brisbane to join the group, after receiving a letter from Phil who was with him in the old Bay City Union. "In those days, there was only the Chelsea Set, Purple Hearts, Twilights and us", said Tony. Tony is back in action and fighting fit after nine months rest and recreation on the Gold Coast. He's one of the best drummers in Australia and has played with groups like Levi Smith Clefts and Fraternity. "I would have gone to America with Fraternity but I fell sick," he said.

A reminder that the Werribee dance will open on Sunday, June 11 at Werribee Centenary Hall with Blackfeather (from Sydney). It Flew Away and Chook. A free bus will run from Altona returning after the dance. The bus will leave the corner of Pier and Blyth Streets at 8 p.m., stopping at Somers Parade at 8.05 p.m. and the south end of Bladin St., Laverton at 8.15 p.m. Murcepts will appear at the dance on June 11 and Daddy Cool on June 25.

KIM'S A NAME TO REMEMBER

To most people the name Kim would immediately bring to mind Rudyard Kipling's famous fictional character.

Not in the Altona, Werribee and Footscray areas however.

"Kim" to residents of these growing suburbs means progress for the district. The late Henry Charles Kim, JP, was first president of the shire of Atona (now Altona City) and a member of Werribee Council for many years.

It can truthfully be said that he helped build the area and his son Ken and the real estate firm he established, H. C. Kim, are carrying on with the family tradition.

In an effort to help people settle in the district Kim has just become an agent for La Trobe Permanent Building Society.

"The permanent building society movement is playing the dominant role in providing finance for homes in Victoria at the moment," a spokesman for the firm said last week.

"We believe in giving our clients the best so we've taken out an agency for La Trobe."

He said the thing to be remembered was that everyone had a role to play in the development of a community.

"People who already own homes can help others realise their dream of home ownership by saving with La Trobe."

La Trobe operates a pass-book savings scheme which is simple to operate and returns 6½ per cent. interest to depositors.

"It's only a few minutes' work to make a deposit or a withdrawal, either at head office or at our branch at Werribee.

"Interest is calculated on a daily basis and will be paid in cash or credited to your account quarterly or even monthly if requested."

The staff will be delighted to discuss La Trobe's saving scheme at any time, Ken concluded.

Kismet still on despite thefts

Williamstown Light Opera Company is lucky to be still able to present Kismet for a four-night season beginning on May 31.

All the lavish costumes were nearly lost, when unknown people broke into the company's premises in Williamstown and did extensive damage to properties.

They destroyed designs created by Mr. Laurie Lane. Papers were also heaped up with an attempt to set fire to them.

Two free tickets can be won each night during the current production by the holders of lucky programme numbers to see the next production. Patrons are advised to buy a programme.

Refinery

Altona councillors were guests of the management of the PRA Altona Refinery on Tuesday.

After an informal presentation they were given cocktails and a buffet meal.

The purpose of the presentation was to explain the role of the Marine Oil Spills Committee. To illustrate the talk, a sort film, Load On Top, was screened. The film described the current method used by the majority of the world's tanker fleet to avoid pollution of ocean waters when cleaning tanks at sea.

Council OK's amber light

Altona dentist, Mr. Michael Lee, has been given the "green light" by Altona Council to place an amber lamp in the front garden of his Romawi Street surgery. Council had previously deferred a decision on the installation of the professional lamp until Mr. Lee had submitted a plan.

Tattslotto draw on June 22

The first Tattslotto draw will take place in Melbourne on June 22 and coupon sales for the draw will open on June 5.

The Tattslotto coupons will be available from Tattersalls branches. Staff at Channel Seven, which will telecast the first and all subsequent Tattslotto drawings live on Thursday evenings at 8.30 p.m., are now completing their programme format.

The $1 entry entitles the subscriber to four separate chances of selecting the winning combination of numbers.

Simon again

Simon Nette, 13, of Altona, actor son and student of local speech and drama teacher, Mrs. Sue Nette, has recently won the junior speech aggregate at the recent W.C.T.U. speech eisteddfod for the second year in succession.

To achieve this Simon was awarded seven places in seven sections, including second place in the open prepared speech section the subject of which was "Youth and the drug scene."

He has just completed a season at St. Martin's Theatre in their programme of Saturday morning plays for children and is rehearsing an Australian children's play to be staged in conjunction with the Kathleen Gorham Ballet School.

Other students of Mrs. Nette who were successful at the eisteddfod were Sandra and Colin Neate of Seaholme and Angela Nette.

Sandra was awarded five places from six sections including two first places, one second and two honorable mentions, and was awarded the primary aggregate.

Colin was awarded six places from seven sections including one first, two thirds and three honorable mentions.

Angela Nette was competing in her first competition and was awarded second place in the prepared scripture reading in the primary section.

AUTUMN LEAVES COMPOST

It is a waste of valuable organic material to burn autumn leaves. Instead, make a compost heap with them.

Mr. Rod Cantrill, horticultural adviser to the Department of Agriculture, said that now was the ideal time to start a compost heap, so that the humus could be used for summer crops when beds were being prepared during October.

Mr. Cantrill said that compost heaps should be built above ground to provide air and drainage. The material going on the heap should be moist, but the material shouldn't be packed into a sodden mass as it would turn sour and not rot.

The traditional way to construct a compost heap is to place six inches of garden waste under a layer of soil or animal manure, a sprinkling of lime, and then cover this with another six inches of waste.

In the home garden there is not always enough material. So, in this case, a few shovelfuls of soil or manure should be thrown onto the heap as it is built up.

The heap should then be left to rot for several weeks, and then turned over. The compost is then left a month or two until it is broken down into dark, small particle humus.

If the compost is left too long it would over rot

Lifesaving news

Last Sunday, Altona Lifesaving Club held its annual barbecue picnic at Warburton. A charter bus carried members, and a cavalcade of cars and penants followed.

John Shaw had his mini-bike (taken along by Dad) and most of the members tried it out. They spread out right along the river, exploring so much that Elizabeth Pilbeam finished up in the river. Stan Jeffrey was busy giving lessons on the use of a golf stick and a lot of turf was sighted in the air.

The chefs, Graham Hanahan, Chris Barnes and Bob Shaw wasted no time in getting the steaks ready for consumption. Roy Bailey and David Hanahan were in control of all sporting events.

Club members are reminded that Presentation Night is this Saturday in the clubrooms at 8 p.m. junior members 70 cents and senior members $1.50. The next club meeting will be in the clubrooms tonight at 7 p.m.

The Arnold Palmer Method

"ATHLETE OF THE DECADE"

REACH FOR THE SKY

A good way to add distance is to make sure that you finish both your backswing and your follow-through. Most golfers don't. They get lazy and fail to fully stretch, and thus utilize, the muscles of their back and shoulders.

On both your backswing and follow-through, you should feel that you are reaching for the sky. Carry the club high over your shoulders. Do this by turning your shoulders, rather than by merely lifting your hands.

I suggest you work on this in practice before you try it on the course. See if you don't hit your shots farther than before.

The Vikings show their superiority

Altona City Football Club first division team humbled West Newport in the weekend's round to turn in something like a replay of last season's grand final.

The clash had been tipped to be one full of fire, but the Vikings ran right away from Newport to have an easy win.

The Vikings' obvious superiority over the West Newport side gave City's supporters a feeling of confidence in considering the rest of the season.

City's blistering pace and faultless cohesion demoralised the opposition. One could go on endlessly about the various highlights of Altona's great win.

The defence was absolute perfection, never giving their opponents an opportunity to steady and kick truly.

Up to the tail end of the last quarter, West had only posted one major.

There was not a player in purple and gold who did not contribute effectively, and it is this factor, which makes it seem very unlikely that the Vikings will kick a losing score.

Captain coach Mal. Tisdale showed the way with a brilliant performance in the centre.

Demolished

Danny Brennan demolished the forward thrusts by the opposition with courage and endeavour at centre half-back. Ron Schwabe was unbeatable at centre half-forward.

Stephen Chatfield treated the spectators to a dazzling display of intelligent roving.

Derek York produced his best form for the season, with a non-stop one hundred minutes of ruck work.

Alan Walgers continued on his merry way with another action plus performance.

Ian McLeod overwhelmed the opposition from start to finish. Robin Morgan created havoc on the half forward line, highlighting his display with paralyzing bursts of speed.

Goals: R. Morgan, J. Chatfield, G. Munro 3; Maltisdale 2; A. Walgers, M. Crump, R. Schwabe, G. Wilson 1.

Final Scores: Altona City 15.20 (110), West Newport 3.3 (21).

SECOND DIVISION

Altona City annihilated Werribee Centrals in a one-sided affair at Soldiers Reserve on Sunday afternoon.

Combining pace, handball and high marking with great effect, the enthusiastic Vikings ran their opponents off their legs.

Every player in the side was a winner and except for an unaccountable lapse, late in the third quarter and for half the last, where Altona lowered their game to the standard of Werribee, the produced a grand display of power football.

Creative handball was used to great effect, there was always a player coming through and backing up and courage was to the fore on every occasion.

The first round of the second division is now complete and Altona City's Vikings reign supreme.

Undeclared to the extent of winning by 12 goals or more on every occasion.

Captain-coach, Bill Devereaux ran riot in the centre, gathering marks and kicks seemingly at will.

Austin Molloy roved brilliantly and was well supported by co-rover Steve Granger. Morrie Tisdale dominated the ruck duels, never missing a hit out and performing solidly around the ground.

Dasher

Enzo Valenti was irrepressible in defence, highlighting his very good game with long clearing lashes. Kevin Flett dumbfounded the Werribee defence with an elusive display on the elusive forward line.

Dick Heany showed out strongly in defence, his courage and determination holding him in good stead. Wayne Patton fitted into the side perfectly, with a solid showing at centre half-forward.

Paul Iiter lifted his game with pleasing results, doing a lot of the heavy work in the packs and generally performing with note on the back line.

Peter Carton, after a slow beginning, showed a ton of ability. Stephen Stiles and Mick Oram both continued their good form. The whole team played well and combined intelligently.

Final scores: Altona City 26.14 (170), Werribee Central 1.8 (14).

UNDER 18s

Producing their best form for the season, Altona City easily defeated West Newport at Grant Reserve on Sunday.

The team is now developing into a solid combination.

Total discipline and an intelligent blending of height and solidity, are making this possible.

They gave the visitors a football lesson in a very one-sided game and can now go on with confidence in their ability and their capabilities.

John Hampton performed brilliantly all day. Cecil Martin returned to his best with a very constructive display.

Ken Churchill roved tirelessly all day, being particularly prominent around the forward line.

Jim Brennan showed a ton of dash on the wing. Mike Starchavich won a million kicks, driving his team into attack relentlessly.

Bob Culbert was a great defender doing everything right when the occasion demanded.

Ken Payne continued his good form in defence as did David Marshall on the ball. Terry Williams made complete a dominating centre-line.

Alan Willett was very prominent on the half-forward line.

Goals: K. Churchill 6, A. Willett 5, J. Hampton 3; G. Knight, N. Henry, M. Starcivich 2; C. Martin 1.

Final scores:

Altona City 21.21 (147), West Newport 3.3 (21).

UNDER SIXTEENS

Altona City's youthful Vikings vanquished Werribee Centrals at Grant Reserve on Saturday morning, refusing to be "got in" by the intimidatory tactics of the opposition and applying themselves diligently for one hundred minutes of breathtaking, superlative football.

The central umpire could have had a detrimental effect on the performance, as he appeared to think that the 25-yard centre square was his boundary, and set about umpiring from there.

This affected both sides, but the pleasing aspect was that the Altona boys went about the business of playing football without conceding him a second thought.

This match completed the first round of the under sixteen competition and Altona's Vikings have only lost the one game, which was against Williamstown Fourths.

They are looking forward with excited anticipation, to meeting this team at home.

In a very even, well balanced team, Peter Mildenhall showed out well with uncanny marking and penetrating forward thrusts. Glen Knight rucked solidly throughout the game.

Dave Hobbs roved intelligently.

Tony Paone figured in many creative attacks, Don Hyett made his presence felt around the ground with some very strong work.

Gary Sorrell was a rock in defence.

Shane Stafford converted his team mates efforts upfield with confidence and solidarity. Glen Nicholls figured in some dashing attacks. Danny Nicholls was very solid. Andrew Donnelly asserted his authority on many occasions.

Goals: P. Mildenhall 7, S. Stafford 7, D. Hobbs 5, T. Paone 5, D. Hyet 2, A. Donnelly, W. Jones, G. Knight.

FINAL SCORES: Altona City 28.20 (188) d. Werribee Centrals 2.4 (16).

Bonanza 72 results, 27th Draw 130-293, 246, 3, 7th 68.

First: I. McLeod 5, R. Schwabe 5, S. Chatfield 4, M. Tisdale 4, A. Walgers 3.

Seconds: W. Devereaux 5, Morrie Tisdale 3, A. Molloy 3, E. Valenti 2, K. Flett 2.

Under 18 — J. Hampton 5, J. Brennan 5, K. Payne 3, M. Starcivich 4, D. Marshall 2.

Under 16 — D. Hobbs 5, G. Sorrell 5, P. Mildenhall 5, D. Hyet 4, T. Paone 3.

ALTONA BOTTLE DRIVE

Altona City Football Club's under-14 and under-12 sections are holding a bottle drive to raise funds on Sunday, June 11.

Any person who could assist with empty bottles could contact 398 1585 and leave their address, so the lads can pick up the bottles.

CENTRALS GO DOWN GAMELY TO SUNSHINE

Centrals, in disappointing form at the moment, were well beaten by the strong Newport combination.

Newport took control from the first bounce and left Centrals flat-footed. Newport used the breeze to advantage and booted six goals for the quarter. Centrals rallied in the second quarter but Newport, strong in attack, did well into the breeze.

Newport was dominant in the air and their long kicking and backing up were superior to that of Centrals.

Led by Ted Jepson, Centrals battled hard all day.

His determination, dedication to fitness and to the club is the example for every player to adopt.

Goal scorers: R. Cole, (2), M. Rogash (1), D. Deahl (1), J. Cargill (1), E. Jepson 1, W. Kennedy (1).

Best: E. Jepson, B. Height, J. Cargill, R. Cole, K. Gilchrist.

Centrals B Division went down fighting to Sunshine Heights on Sunday. The game was of excellent standard and a credit to both sides.

Sunshine jumped Centrals in the first quarter and with good handball and team work had five goals on the board by quarter time to Centrals nil.

The northern end was definitely the scoring end as Centrals pegged Sunshine back and with minutes remaining in the quarter points only separated the two teams.

However, Sunshine rallied and with two quick goals had the advantage at half time.

Centrals were back in business again early in the third term with goals from Angry Vassiliadis and Laurie Cooke.

Murray Sayers and Don Kakosche were doing well on the ball and giving Centrals drive.

Sunshine were not to be outdone and answered Centrals' every challenge to lead by 21 points coming into the last term.

This quarter was fiercely contested as Centrals notched a goal through Mick Kizan.

Sunshine were proving very strong and with good teamwork had the game sealed half way through the last term.

To their credit they continued to outplay Centrals right up to the final siren.

Final scores: Central Altona 11.6 (72) to Sunshine Heights 18.19 (127).

Best: A. Vassiliadis 1, D. Kakosche 1, E. Jepson, M. Zerafa, M. Sayers 1.

Other goal scorers: L. Cooke 4, J. Cargill 1, M. Ivory 1, M. Kizan 2.
